

Senior Security Advisor Castle Defense 360 CSOS Instructor Security Analyst

Kenneth Vignali is an Army Combat Veteran that has held many roles including, Personal Security Specialist, Civil Affairs Specialist and Personal Security Detail Team Member. He is currently a Senior Security Advisor. He has just completed the Certified Security Operations Specialist (CSOS) Education and Experience Certification and the CSOS Instructor Distance Learning Program

With over 12 years of experience between the physical and cyber security industry, Kenneth's personal mission has been to help guide clients and partner with organizations, both public and private, on a relational journey to continuously evolve and improve both domains.

His goal in life is to leave every organization and environment more secure than what he found it and help ensure it is a program that can continuously evolve and adapt to the current threat landscape. .

Special Skills:

- Building and training physical security teams for religious organizations
- Security Awareness Programs
- Global Incident Response
- OSINT/SOCMINT/GEO
- Threat intelligence lead
- Data Loss Prevention Programs
- Digital Forensics including mobile forensics
- Missing Person investigations

