Public Remarks: Seductive with its elegance and style that today's innovative buyer fervently awaits. As soon as you arrive you are lured by its presence. The home greets you with its towering two story entrance allowing you to observe the unobstructed flow of the downstairs. Designed to entertain and for all to enjoy. Just off the foyer is the cocktail bar and lounge, and the conservatory addition for guests to gather or to enjoy some quiet time. Stroll back through the foyer and you pass under the second floor balcony, which looks down on the formal dining room and stately family room, with floor to ceiling marble stone fireplace and towering 20 ft ceilings. Just beyond is the private study or home office with panoramic views of the backyard. More...
