Repatriation

By Dr. R. Pletsch

If you are interested in what our students are concerned about, talk to them. The trick is to be them. The trick is to be non-threatening and when you are finished, they should know which way you believe. They then are more likely to give honest responses. The students I talked with in the last two weeks

have wondered why the news keeps covering elec-tions in Virginia. They also want to know why so many people don't want to take the Covid vaccine. But the question that intrigued the students

most was the issue of

repatriation.

dents brought forth the issue because on September 23rd, the President of the Republic of Korea, Moon Jae-in, came to Hawaii to return the remains of six Americans who were killed during the Korean War near the Chosin River. President Moon Jae-in brought them to the Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam and were accepted by the head of the US Indo-Pacific Command, Adm. John Aquilino. This information was in the Department of Defense bulletin and in Newsmax. The question amongst these students was why our President did not attend. If he could not attend, why not the Vice President or at least the Secretary of State. The college age students consider this a great disre-spect toward our fallen American military and to an allied President from Korea.

The event was not well covered by the press in the U.S., South Korea and our other allies had coverage. Of course, the local Honolulu press covered it, but very few oth-

Aquinas Literacy Center, a nonprofit literacy organization in McKinley Park, knows the value that volunteer tutors bring. Without the support of many volunteers, Aquinas would not be able to carry out its mission of empowering adults to learn English and become more engaged in their community. This past weekend, five new volunteer English Literacy tutors were to help address the societal need of adult education in English as a Second Language. Pictured are John Brockway, Societal need of adult education in English as a Second Language. Fictured are John Brockway, Kevin O'Neil, Lameese Hajissa, Sr. Joyce Zarnik, OSF and Frani Luehrs. Over 20 students are wait-ing to be matched with an English tutor. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer English Literacy tutor, the next training workshop will be held virtually over Zoom on Thursday, Nov. 11th from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Volunteer tutors are needed to instruct limited English proficient adults learners for 90 minutes per week at 1751 W. 35th st. All instruction is one-on-one and training is provided. Tutoring can be in-person, online over Zoom or a hybrid of both. Knowledge of a second language is not required; all instruction is in English.

Renovation for City Council Approves $16.7B Recovery Budget

On Oct. 27th, the Chicago City Council passed the 2022 Recovery Budget which balances financial stability with investments in the resi-dents, communities, and businesses businesses businesses. The budget incorpo-rates feedback from the community engagement effort including round tables with neighborhood organizations, focus groups with subject mat-ter experts, and Budget Engagement Forums with residents. The Chicago Recovery Plan, a $1.2B series of investments, focuses on safe communities, on safe communities, equitable economic recov-ery and essential city services.

These investments include community-based violence prevention and reduction, including a and clean vacant lots. The Chicago Recovery Plan adds another $176M for small business and tourism and industry support and $87M for vacant lot assessment and clean-up. The plan includes planting tens of thousands of new trees and establishing and improving amenities such as grocery stores, commercial spaces, and parks.

The 2022 budget closes the projected $733 mil-lion gap with $298.2 mil-lion in savings and effi-ciencies and $491.1 million in new or increased revenues – including the use of ARP resources for City services.

For the first time in the City's history, all four pension funds will be paid on an actuarially determined basis. The City also continues to reduce its outstanding long-term debt without the effect of scoop and toss debt scoop and toss debt restructuring for the third year in a row. The City will refinance approximately $1.2 bil-lion in bonds, which is expected to generate $254

BRIGHTON PARK AND McKINLEY PARK LIFE

The Commission on Chicago Landmarks honored 12 exceptional development projects at the 2021 "Preservation Excellence Awards," including the restoration of Union Station, the adaptive reuse of the former Cook County Hospital, the rehabilitation of two 19th century homes in the Old Edgebrook District, and the adaptive reuse of the former West Pullman School.

The awards, established in 1999, are presented annually to individuals, nonprofit organizations, businesses, and public agencies that have worked to preserve Chicago's architectural and cultural heritage. Honored during a virtual award ceremony, the winners were chosen from projects reviewed.

Questions and comments about the award winners can be directed to landmarks@cityofchicago.org. A video summary highlighting each award winner is available on the DPD YouTube page.
